

Oana NEGUT joined Farmaceutica REMEDIA's team in January 2019 in the position of Human Resources Director.

Graduated in Psychology, Oana NEGUT started her career in human resources since 1995, going through all the professional stages of the human resources department.

The most relevant experience in the pharmaceutical market was in the company Prisum International, importer and distributor of nutritional supplements and medicines, where for 14 years he held different positions within the human resources department, from HR Business Partner to Human Resources Director.

In 2012 she graduated GM MasterClass Academy from CBC Romania, a program of reorganization, development and consolidation of the business, certified with a General Manager diploma.

In 2018 she resumed this program, to complete the new modules, Coaching for accelerating employee performance and Mapping structural links between departments and positions.

She is involved in volunteer activities, such as blood donation campaigns, sports activities and not least projects to help children from disadvantaged families.

She is married and has a son.